

ALT CRYPTO

1. What is ALT Crypto Network

A blockchain project with the ambition to solve the bridge problem between fiat currency and cryptocurrency which has long been an issue of how difficult cryptocurrency is accepted by many countries. This project is also expected to be able to solve the problem of crossing bridges between networks which are considered to still have the potential for infiltration and theft of crypto assets in the middle of the road.

Implementation of the Proof of Stake consensus mechanism as implemented in several networks still has some unresolved problems and obstacles so we have developed several parts so that they can be close to perfection.

ALT Crypto Network is prepared to solve some cross-network problems and provide the best solution to be able to connect multiple networks without having to additional costs and do not use hot wallets to cross over to other networks.

2. What is ALTCRYPTO

A crypto tokens on top of the Binance Smart Chain (BSC) network whose ecosystem is growing very rapidly. This token is not intended to just play capital gains but to connect real businesses into the crypto world. ALTCRYPTO was built to provide financial benefits to its holders so that power of the whales does not have a negative impact on retailers with dump and pump games.

2.1 There are many mechanisms to get ALT Crypto, that is :

- ALT Crypto tokens are obtained by completing several tasks and can be claimed at any time by members without having to wait for the airdrop disbursement when the reward amount reaches the minimum claim. A number of tokens will be allocated as airdrops within a certain time and in several activities to build and develop the community.
- ALT Crypto will do a fair launch to provide an opportunity for early investors who want to join in building the ALT Crypto project and get more benefits in the market.

- ALT Crypto has a reflection function that provides more benefits to each member who hold their ALT Crypto in the ALTC WALLET and other crypto wallets that can be used to store ALT Crypto such as Trust Wallet, Metamask, Bitget and other crypto wallets. Reflection will be distributed automatically in the amount of 1% (one percent) of every ALT Crypto sold on Decentralized Exchange without having to complete any tasks so that it will be very profitable for anyone who keeps ALT Crypto in their wallet.
- ALT Crypto will be sell in crypto exchange, so that members who want to increase their portfolio can buy ALT Crypto on the crypto exchange and can sell their ALT Crypto on the crypto exchange.

4. What is ALT Crypto Card

ALTC Wallet users will also find it easy to transact their crypto assets through ALT Crypto Card which can be used anywhere through a third party working with the ALTC Wallet developer. ALT Crypto Card is a Debit Card whose balance will be taken from every crypto asset that is exchanged into fiat through the ALTC Wallet platform without having to staking crypto assets.

ALT Crypto Card can be used at any merchant that cooperates with the ALT Crypto Card issuer through an Electronic Data Capture (EDC) machine. ALT Crypto Card cardholders can use their cards in any country by placing their fiat balance in local currency so there is no need to think about conventional fiat currency exchange. Limits for daily card spending vary and are determined by the type of card used and cardholders will receive many additional benefits through programs being implemented by the card issuer ALT Crypto Card as well as programs implemented by the ALTC Wallet manager.

5. What is ALTCryptoX

ALTCryptoX is a decentralized crypto exchange market and is listed on the ALT Crypto Network, thus ensuring the security of crypto assets being traded without fear of liquidity issues. ALTCryptoX uses the spot trading feature so that each user can determine the selling price and purchase price as desired so that trading crypto assets on the ALTCryptoX platform is expected to be a security solution for trading crypto between blockchain networks that is more transparent, decentralized and profitable because every crypto asset from other networks will go through the gateway to be tradable on ALTCryptoX.

6. What is ALT Crypto Vacation

An ambitious project to manage several tourist attractions to be visited and enjoyed by travelers from all over the world. ALT Crypto Vacation will collaborate with several managers of existing tourist attractions to be developed and managed professionally so as to provide financial benefits for ALT Crypto Vacation as well as local residents.

ALT Crypto Vacation will provide an interesting experience for its service users where all people can visit and enjoy tourist attractions managed by ALT Crypto Vacation. We will make crypto enthusiasts and non-enthusiasts comfortable with all the facilities we provide.

ALT Crypto Vacation service users can use fiat currency or crypto currency in transactions at ALT Crypto Vacation tourist sites so as to provide a sense of comfort and convenience for all parties. All ALT Crypto Vacation internal payment activities will use ALT Crypto as an alternative means of payment so that it can increase the demand for ALT Crypto.

For each income from ALT Crypto Vacation project, 20% will be distributed to each ALT Crypto Staking participant with ALTC Token as a form of appreciation and participation in building the ALT Crypto Network project. Amount of reward received is calculated from amount of ALT Crypto that is at stake.

7. What is ALTCrypto Travel Agent

If generally online travel agent platforms only accept fiat as a means of paying for each product and service, then ALTCrypto Travel Agent will accept crypto assets as an alternative means of payment on its platform. Every user will get an interesting experience in every trip and vacation without having to exchange their crypto assets first. ALTCrypto Travel Agent will provide flight ticketing, hotel vouchers, tourist attractions and car rental services by accepting various types of crypto assets and fiat currencies as means of payment.
